Who's Who in Dickinson Rotary

If you have been in the Dickinson Rotary Club for a while, you probably have met Bob Stranik. But maybe you have recently joined, or, have seen this Rotarian around but never really knew who he was.

Bob Stranik joined Rotary in June of 1986. His classification is Banking, Consultant in Business Finance. Bob joined Rotary after knowing a lot of friends who were in the club. He has always enjoyed being part of the group and feels that the projects that Rotary takes on are worthwhile. He feels that Rotary does many good things both locally and internationally. Currently, his favorite thing about Rotary is the fellowship and the projects that we do.

Bob is a life long Dickinson resident. He started his work life working in a Dickinson grocery store. He also managed the Farmers Union Oil in South Heart, then spent 18 years at Dickinson Beverage Company. He then got into banking and consulting.

Bob and his wife Alice have 5 children. He states that only one has remained in North Dakota – JoAnn who is in Fargo. His other children are Mary Kaye who lives in Minneapolis, Don and Marjorie who live in Walnut Creek, California and Jerry who lives in Alaska. Bob used to travel to all these places to see his children but states they now come to see him. He also spends part of the winter in California so they also enjoy visiting him there.

Bob used to enjoy playing golf and hunting but has not been able to do that recently. His past times are spent reading articles that he enjoys and he also still does some consulting work.

Thanks, Bob, for being a long time loyal and committed member of Rotary!
