Rotary Round Up

Program Last week Shawn Soehn speaking on some of the projects coming up in the city of Dickinson.

Announcements

Our exchange student, David LeJeune, is still interested in work! He can take donations for his trip after his time with us. In return, he would LOVE to work for you – he will cook, clean, do lawn work, help you with your computer. If you can help him out and he can help you out, please call Glenice Hansen to arrange!

Winner of the Wine last week was April Bishop.

Guests Last week

Included Pat Bart and Delores Thompson from Fisher Industries, guests of Clyde Frank; and, Lee Dire, guest of Shirley Dukart.

Brags and Fines

Do you have something to brag about? It will only cost you a dollar.

Last week Merry Johnston stated that our exchange student, David LeJeune has had such a good time in the United States that he has too much luggage to take home! So, Merry's son, Joe was going to Europe, took some of the luggage and met David's parents to "hand off" the treasures! Merry bragged that her son has helped Rotary "lend a hand".

Rotary is Recognized by DSU

- Kari Lyon Shea

On Saturday, May 1, Dickinson State University Foundation hosted an appreciation banquet for the major donors to the University. The evening started with a social at President Vickers, then continued with an unveiling of a wood sculpture which was commissioned and donated in memory of David Fessler. The sculpture is a beautiful representation of life at Dickinson State. It hangs in the lobby at the Student Center, just outside the ballroom.

The evening continued with a wonderful banquet, some comments by the Foundation Board President, Mary Nordsvan, a "state of the university" address by President Vickers and presentation of recognition gifts to major donors. The Rotary Club received a certificate in recognition of donations between $2500 and $4999 – the "University Club". This was for donations given from July 1, 2002 to June 30, 2003.

Rotary President Clyde Frank asked me to attend for him as he and several board members were attending the District Rotary Convention in Detroit Lakes. I was honored to attend and had a great time. One thing that was really fun was to see that there were many Rotarians in attendance, either on behalf of themselves or of their businesses. One more example of Rotarians making a difference in their community!
