Thank You

(Edited for space) My name is Amy Hecker and I would like to thank you for the Dickinson Rotary Nursing Scholarship. It is much appreciated for financial reasons, as well as making me feel supported by my home community.

I grew up in Dickinson and am very proud to be a North Dakotan. My interest in nursing began in high school when I was a student athletic trainer. Helping the athletes with their injuries made me realize that I enjoyed taking care of people and didn't like to see anyone hurt or sick. However, I didn't decide to study nursing until a few years later.

I graduated in 2000 and moved to Minneapolis to attend Bible school. During that time I worked in a daycare and was often sick. Being a poor college student I couldn't always afford to go to the doctor, so I started studying health care, nutrition and homeopathic remedies on my own.

After studying for a semester in Mexico, I decided to move back to Dickinson and attend DSU for the nursing program. Once I receive my degree, I hope to stay in Dickinson and work and raise my family. I also hope to use my education to take several short term mission trips and help people around the world who can't afford proper medical care.

Receiving this scholarship has made it much easier for me to fulfill my goal of obtaining a degree in nursing from DSU. Thank you for supporting me and several other students as well.

Amy Hecker.

Dickinson Rotary at District Conference

Dickinson Rotary had seven people attend the District Conference in Detroit Lakes April 20 – May 2. They were: Greg Sund, Jim Ozbun (and his wife Sonja), Mark Puppe, Clyde Frank, Donovan Benzie, Shirley Dukart and David LeJeune.

The next District Conference is April 26 – 30 in Thunder Bay, Ontario. Since this is a short trip of 1200 (yikes!) miles, the district is considering getting a bus. Watch for details.

The International Conference in 2005 is in Chicago from June 18 – 23. There is a bus going from the district for a cost of $520. Watch for more details.

It was announced that our Centennial Poster Contest winner, Kyle Rummel, also won the District contest. His poster will now go on to international competition. He won $100 for the award at district. Congratulations Kyle!

Know someone who may be interested in being a Rotarian? The district needs 11 more new members to meet their goal. Share the Rotary experience with someone you know!

Resolution

Last week the Board brought a resolution to the membership to support Jim Ozbun for the 2005-06 District Governor. Wayne Little who was to be District Governor that year, was injured in an auto accident as he returned to his home from PETS training. We wish Wayne the best, and the Dickinson Rotary Club heartily supports Jim Ozbun for the District Governor.
