What is Rotary?

Rotary is an organization of business and professional leaders united worldwide who provide humanitarian service, encourage high ethical standards in all vocations, and help build goodwill and peace in the world.

Invite a Friend, Earn Credit!

Rotarians, you can earn $40 credit on your dues when an individual you propose for membership becomes a member in good standing. (Limited to ($120 during the fiscal year).

Rotary Roundup

Guests included: Lloyd Moldenhauer brought his wife, Rose.

We had a visiting Rotarian from Vancouver, Washington. Sorry, your editor did not get his name. ☹

Family of Rotary

Please let Colleen know if any Rotarians or their families need special cards for special occasions in their lives. You can use the weekly drawing slips to indicate what is needed.

Last week cards went out to:

Jim Ozbun, congratulations for being named a Volunteer of the Year for the Dickinson Chamber of Commerce.

Nancy Johnson and her husband Dennis, congratulations on being named a CoCo Philanthropist of the year.

Bob Stranik and his wife Alice, congratulations on being named a CoCo Philanthropist of the year.

Bragging Rights

Do you have something to brag about? It will only cost you a dollar.

Merry Johnston got fined $1 for "advertising" when she had the group sing "It's a Grand Old Name".

Our speaker, Jack Ruttger, got fined $1 for bragging that his club sang better than ours!

Winner of the Wine was Lyle Brudvig.

Rotary Centennial Committee to be Named!

February 2005 is the 100th Anniversary of Rotary International. Every Club is asked to come up with special projects and celebrations for this special year. A search committee has been named by the Board to find Rotarians interested in serving Rotary in this once in a hundred years way! Do you like to plan events and celebrations? Do you have ideas you have just been busting at the seams to get to somebody? Now is your chance. Please let Clyde Frank know if you are interested in doing this. Here is a chance to "lend a hand" to your own Rotary club in a fun way. We can't read your mind, so please volunteer!

Help Me!

K.Lyon

I know this is really tough for you to believe, but sometimes, filling up this space is kind of hard. You probably thought that there was no end to the garbage that was in my head that I would so graciously share with you in the extra space of the Rotary newsletter.

Surprise! Sometimes there is nothing up in this head but cobwebs. So. . . I would really like to put some very informative and interesting articles here and what is more interesting that information about our own members. Some of us have been in this club for many years, others for a few months. There are people here that we might know their name, but know nothing else about them.

Many of you had your picture taken by me at the beginning of this Rotary year. I would like you to fill out the questionnaires on the table and leave them on the table at the end of our meeting. This will give me some information to add to the picture so we can get to know each other better. Brilliant, huh.

Then I will have a whole bunch of new information to add to this newsletter. Thanks for the help, watch for your favorite Rotarian in this space in weeks to come. Oh, and by the way, remember that the first part of the four way test is "Is it the Truth?" Don't worry, I won't ask for your age, the amount in your bank account or how much land you farm. Thanks a bunch!
